Instructor: Associate Professor Scott Savage

Office: ECON 121 (north-west corner of ground floor in economics building)

Address: Department of Economics, 256 UCB, Boulder, Colorado 80309-0256

problems and solutions is the best way to become proficient in the application of microeconomic theory and the way economists think and solve problems.

Feel free to form study groups to review and discuss lecture/reading material, homework assignments etc., but you must submit individual work for grading (note: if you work with a study group or individual class mates on assignments, please list the names of these persons on the front page of your submitted assignment).

Students should:

- (a) attend three 50

The mid-term and final examinations will consist of short-answer and problem solving questions similar to homework questions and class applications. You will need a basic non-programmable calculator to perform calculations during the exams.

There will be no make-up homework assignments, quizzes or examinations unless there is a proven emergency or other unusual circumstances that have been discussed with the instructor prior to submission/completion dates. If you are aware of any problems that may hinder your performance in the class please discuss with the instructor sooner than later. Any student that misses the mid-term examinations due to proven emergency or other circumstances may have their final exam weighted up with instructor approval.

The final examination is scheduled for December 14, 7.30-10pm. See http://registrar.colorado.edu/calendar/exam\_sched\_fall13.html.

about the ODH, the above referenced policies and the campus resources available to assist individuals regarding discrimination or harassment can be obtained at <http://www.colorado.edu/odh>.

All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to the academic integrity policy of this institution. Violations of this policy may include: cheating, plagiarism, aid of academic dishonesty, fabrication, lying, bribery, and threatening behavior. All incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council (honor@colorado.edu; 303-725-2273). Students who are found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy will be subject to both academic sanctions from the faculty member and non-academic sanctions (including but not limited to university probation, suspension, or expulsion). Other information on the Honor Code can be found at <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/honor.html> and at <http://www.colorado.edu/academics/honorcode/>.

Disability Services' letters for students with disabilities indicate legally mandated reasonable accommodations. The syllabus statements and answers to Frequently Asked Questions can be found at <http://www.colorado.edu/disabilityservices>.

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to reasonably and fairly deal with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. In this class, please indicate by email, near the beginning of the semester, if there is a conflict. See full details at http://www.colorado.edu/policies/fac\_relig.html.
